

The Presidential Active Lifestyle Award

Have fun.

Find Activities You Enjoy - The Presidential Active Lifestyle Award (PALA) allows participants to choose from a wide variety of options like Tae Kwon Do to achieve their goal. No matter your level of ability you can meet the Challenge. Maximize the fun by getting family and friends to train with you or participate in your other favorite activities. Below are a few other examples, for more information visit www.millionpalachallenge.org.

- In the Great Outdoors - Walk, hike a trail, try a canoe, swim at a pool, lake, or beach.
- At the Gym - Circuit Training, treadmill or elliptical machine, spinning, or yoga.
- Around the House - Take the dog for a walk, garden, play hide and seek, or tag.

You Can Do It - Start logging your training and other favorite physical activities daily. Your goal is to be active at least 5 days a week for 6 weeks. Adults (18 years or older) complete at least 30 minutes per day, while youth (6 years to 17 years) should engage in at least 60 minutes per day. Tracking is easy:

- Online - Register for an account at www.millionpalachallenge.org where you'll be able to select activities, enter times, and follow your progress. Join the ATA Leadership Now (Group # 95646) online group and compare your progress against others, while receiving encouragement along the way.
- Paper Log - Sometimes paper is best. You can use a hardcopy activity log (reverse side) to track your progress. If you're part of a group, include your group's ID. Just make sure to give your log to your Group Administrator or visit www.millionpalachallenge.org to be counted!

Get moving.

Get Recognized - Earning the award is easy. Be active 5 days a week and in less than 2 months you'll be thanking yourself.

Visit www.millionpalachallenge.org to track your progress and once you complete the award you'll receive a limited edition commemorative certificate recognizing your participation in the Million PALA Challenge.

Earn the award.

Move It. Log It. Earn It.
